

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To: Texas A&M University-Kingsville Students and Employees
From: Dr. Robert H. Vela Jr
Date: November 1, 2024
Subject: Reaffirmation of Commitment to Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action

Texas A&M University-Kingsville is a federal contractor subject to the provisions of Executive Order 11246, as amended. Implementing regulations from the U.S. Department of Labor require that each federal contractor issue an equal opportunity statement demonstrating its commitment to affirmative action and nondiscrimination in recruitment, hiring, training, and promotions in all job titles.

Accordingly, Texas A&M University-Kingsville does not discriminate or permit harassment against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity, sexual orientation, and pregnancy), national origin, age, disability, genetics, status as a disabled veteran or protected veteran, or any other legally prohibited basis, in admissions, educational programs, or employment of faculty or staff. This includes the prohibition of harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion, discrimination, or retaliation against current students, applicants for enrollment, employees, and applicants for employment, for having filed a complaint, assisted in an investigation, or otherwise exercised their rights under the executive order.

Texas A&M University-Kingsville is committed to providing an educational and work environment that is conducive to the personal and professional development of each individual student and employee. The Chief Executive Officers of the A&M System universities and agencies are responsible for achieving an equal employment opportunity environment, and each System employee is accountable for creating an atmosphere that values and nurtures community, respect, and accessibility.

Texas A&M University-Kingsville is committed to serving students and community members through education, leadership development, research and service. We will meet these goals through a dynamic workforce that effectively responds to our constituents. It is my firm commitment to ensure that equal employment opportunity and access will be provided throughout the university to all current and prospective students and employees. Please join me in this commitment.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert H. Vela Jr.", is written over a horizontal line.

Dr. Robert H Vela Jr.
President of Texas A&M University-Kingsville
